Description of scientific activity

I conduct interdisciplinary research devoted to various forms of cultural mobility, with a particular focus on international diplomacy and cultural policy of so-called 'smaller players' on the international stage. My research includes topics such as: Polish-Dutch/Flemish cultural mobility within the transnational network of the interwar artistic and literary avant-garde, Cold War cultural relations between Poland and the Netherlands and between Poland and Belgium, as well as Polish-Portuguese artistic exchange after 1974.
PI of several research projects from the Polish National Science Centre, the National Agency for Academic Exchange, and the Dutch Language Union.
